WORKER SCREENING QUESTIONNAIRE

The following questions are intended to assist ministries in appropriately vetting candidates for employment or volunteer service working either directly or indirectly with minors. These questions are simply a guide and require the interviewer and the ministry to carefully consider responses to these questions. These are intended to be asked during an interview between leadership and the candidate in person.

Negative responses to these questions may not automatically disqualify some candidates from service with minors but may rather be indicators or “red flags” that may prompt ministry leaders to redirect the service of the candidate to another area of ministry where they may serve apart from minors.

This questionnaire is intended to be used as a part of a comprehensive child protection program that includes policies & procedures, application, candidate screening including background and reference checks, training, and a response plan.
